Undertaking

Implementation of Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP)

It is hereby declared that the institution has implemented the Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP) framework in compliance with the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, to ensure the privacy, security, and responsible handling of personal data of students, staff, and stakeholders.

The college has established data governance practices including controlled data collection, lawful usage, and secure storage of personal information. Access to sensitive data is restricted through role-based authorization, and digital records are protected using passwords and secure systems. Consent is obtained wherever required for data collection and usage.

Awareness program and orientations are conducted for faculty, staff, and students on data privacy, cyber safety, and ethical use of digital information. Regular monitoring and internal checks are carried out to prevent data misuse and unauthorized access.

Through policy compliance, awareness creation, and secure digital practices, the institution ensures confidentiality, transparency, and accountability in handling personal data, aligning with statutory requirements and best institutional practices.
